INTRODUCTION

WELCOME TO THE FRINGE

Welcome to the Great Salt Lake Fringe Festival! We are so excited to bring Salt Lake City its first-ever Fringe, right in the heart of Sugar House.

The Great Salt Lake Fringe Festival started in a theatre classroom at Westminster College, but Fringes around the world have been enchanting and enthralling audiences for years. The first (and most famous) Fringe started in Edinburgh, Scotland in 1947 as an alternative to the traditional theatre happening in the city. Since then, hundreds of Fringes have sprung up around the world.

The arts are at the heart of the Fringe, and we're passionate about giving artists the opportunity to showcase creative and original work. That's why we give 100% of ticket and visual art sales to the artists.

to artists—they improve the local economy wherever they take place. Look for the blue 'F' in the windows of the 20+ local merchants that sponsor the Great Salt Lake Fringe. Eat, drink, and shop between shows and keep the money local by supporting those who support art.

The Fringe is unlike anything Salt Lake City has ever seen. Walk, bike, or take Trax to see the wild opening and closing parties, 25 bands, visual artists, 120 performances of theatre, dance, aerial arts, magic, and more.

Thank you for joining us at this brand-new arts experience and enjoy the shows!

Best,

THE FRINGE TEAM

Emilio Casillas, Erin Cavender, Manda Corbett, Sierra Ducharme-Hansen, Suni Gigliotti, Shianne Gray, Natale McAney, Dannielle Moriondo, Michael Vought, and Nina Vought

WHAT'S A FRINGE ANYWAY?

Think of a Fringe Festival as live theatre's equivalent to an Independent Film Festival. It's an opportunity to showcase art and artists, most of whom don't fit so neatly in the mainstream theatre world or are launching a new work. The Great Salt Lake Fringe is a non-profit that exists solely to promote artists by providing expertise, venues, exposure, and opportunity.

THE INVISIBLES

UNIVERSITY OF UTAH YOUTH THEATRE
Rating: F

A compilation of poems, short stories, songs and laments by homeless youth and re-interpreted by Youth Theatre's Conservatory students. This musical gives voice to the struggles of young people living their lives on the streets of an otherwise quiet and clean Salt Lake community. This musical examines homelessness through the words, hopes and fears of youth caught in a cycle of poverty and brushed aside by the society that created them.

MISTERMAN
KALTIN KIRBY
Rating: FFF
(Language)

Inishfree might seem like a quaint Irish town, but fierce evangelist Thomas Magill knows better. He knows that Dwain Flynn is a miserable drunk and that sweet Mrs. Cleary is a blasphemous flirt. It is up to Thomas, with God on his shoulder, to save this sinful place. But the townsfolk are not listening, an angel is misbehaving and a barking dog will not be silenced. Just how far will Thomas go in his quest for salvation?

Fringe Factory: Main Floor

Thursday - 1:30 PM
Saturday - 12:00 PM, 9:00 PM
Sunday - 1:30 PM

NOOPURA LAYA GATII: DANCE OF THE ANKLEBELLS
CHITRAKAAVYA DANCE
Rating: F

The concert will showcase new and classical choreography that reveals the grandeur and vibrancy of Bharatanatyam, a classical South Indian dance tradition. The technically demanding dance form reveals nuanced lyricism, rhythmic exuberance and emotional intensity; transporting the audience to a time long ago, in a land far away where the sound of the anklebells resonates in the deepest interstices of the soul.

SHAKIN' IT WITH SHAKESPEARE
UNIVERSITY OF UTAH
YOUTH THEATRE
Rating: F

This show is an entertaining way to introduce young audiences to the wonderful world of Shakespeare. With songs, dances, and loose interpretations of a Comedy, a Tragedy, and a History, we cover it all in 30 minutes.

Sprague Library

Thursday - 4:30 PM
Saturday - 4:30 PM

STRANGERS, LOVERS, FAMILY, FRIENDS
COMPANY OF COHORTS
Rating: FFF
(Language, Sexual Themes)

What's on the docket? A "Breakfast Club" scenario turned on its head, a supernatural being who questions her own existence, a randy best man and maid of honor, and a family reunion that can only end in chaos.

WAITING BOWED BOUGH PRODUCTIONS
Rating: FF

Waiting features three short plays from local artists. 'Waiting for Blurtso' by Alan Davison is a dark view of the human race and the disastrous things we do to distract ourselves from thinking about death. 'Early' by Max Huftalin is a story of a girl who struggled to face ebbs and flows of life until she has an unusual encounter with a stranger.

THE WEYWARD SISTERS
PYGMALION
PRODUCTIONS
Rating: FF

Charged with bewitching a kill-wearing, ambitious Scotsman, the Three Weyward (Weird) Sisters plot their course. Forbidden to utter his proper name, they speak of him in hushed tones as the Celtic Chap or the Gaelic Guy. There's a slip of the tongue, a misplaced prophecy and their scheme goes horribly awry.

VISUAL FRINGE

DON'T JUST SEE ART. BE ART.

BRUCE AOKI

Body Images:

When was the last time you had a photographic portrait taken? Not a selfie and not a snapchat, but a professional, studio portrait. Was it grade school? Indulge, and take a dare. Have a studio portrait made that captures the moment and reveals your personality and character. It will last forever.

Friday: 7:00-10:00 PM
In the Fringe Studio

SHAYNE SHAW

Light Painting:

Create a magical world inside a picture as photographer Shayne Shaw teaches you to paint with light.

Thursday: 7:00-11:00 PM
In the Fringe Studio

SOUND FUN? THERE'S NO SITTING FEE! YOU JUST PAY FOR THE PRINT.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

IT TAKES A COMMUNITY TO MOUNT A FRINGE!

Everyone running around with 'Fringe Staff' t-shirts is a volunteer.
Many have been working on the festival all year.
To them we give a huge THANK YOU!

THE FRINGE IS PRODUCED IN ASSOCIATION WITH THE UTAH ARTS ALLIANCE.

The advertisement features a dark wood-grain background. On the left is the Sugarhouse Pub logo, which consists of a green oval with a white border containing a white 'S' at the top, 'pub' in a cursive font in the middle, and a white 'H' at the bottom. To the right of the logo, the text reads: 'SUGARHOUSE PUB IS A PROUD SPONSOR OF THE GREAT SALT LAKE Fringe AUGUST 6-9 2015'. Below this, it says 'COME JOIN US AFTER THE SHOW' in yellow, followed by the address '1994 S 1100 E' in white, and the contact information 'SLC, UT 84106 • (801) 413-2857 • OPEN 2PM-2AM DAILY' in white.
