INTRODUCTION

Welcome to the 2017 Great Salt Lake Fringe! We are so excited to be back for our third year of theatre, art, music, dance, and more, right in the heart of Sugar House.

A little background: The Fringe started when Westminster College professors Nina and Michael Vought stumbled upon the New Orleans Fringe Festival and were captivated by the array of unique performances they saw there. They pitched the idea of a fringe festival in Salt Lake City to a group of students and alumni of Westminster, who ran with the Fringe spirit and, under the mentorship of the Voughts, produced the inaugural Great Salt Lake Fringe Festival in August 2015.

So far, it's been a great success! To date, the Fringe has paid out over $50,000 to 300+ artists, employed 100+ young people as staff and volunteers, and presented the world premieres of 50+ original productions. We strive to create opportunities for artists by providing accessible and affordable performances spaces, encouraging the development of original works, and inspiring a community of creativity and collaboration.

The Fringe is unlike any other theatre experience. Here, you'll find an artistic community that isn't satisfied with the status quo. Fringe artists and audiences alike are willing to push limits, think outside the box, and embrace the unique nature of live performance. We invite you to jump in headfirst to two exhilarating weekends of engaging, varied, magical, funny, moving, thought-provoking, delightful Fringe!

We're glad you're here, and we can't wait for you to experience the amazing talent and creativity of our Fringe family.
